

LONG ISLAND UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF NURSING BROOKLYN CAMPUS

NUR 392 Clinical Nursing VI: Nursing Care of Children and their Families

CLINICAL EVALUATION

STUDENT: Sara Levy

DATE: From 05/19/13, To 06/30/13

COURSE: Nursing 392

CLINICAL ABSENCES: 0

AGENCY Maimonides Medical Center

PREPARED BY: Prof. K. Mullen

DIRECTIONS: Check the appropriate description, place comments in the spaces provided and use summary sheet for further explanation.

E- Exceeds expectations M- meets expectations NM- Has not meet expectations N/A- not available P- Pass F- Fail

Criteria	Midterm Grade				Final Grade
	E	M	NM	N/A	F	P
1. Assess the physical growth and developmental stages of clients from infancy through adolescence.		x				x
2. Apply the principles of growth and development in the care of children and their families.		x				x
3. Utilize the nursing process to provide safe, organized, and efficient nursing care for children and their families.		x				x
4. Incorporate knowledge from nursing and other disciplines to promote, maintain, and/or restore wellness to children and their families.	x					x
5. Utilize effective communication skills when interacting with children, peers, families and health team.	x					x
6. Collaborate with the health team to promote, maintain and restore wellness to children and their families in keeping with the goals of Healthy People 2010.		x				x
7. Demonstrate accurate dosage calculation and safe administration of medications and intravenous fluids to children from infancy to adolescence.		x				x
8. Develop and implement a developmentally appropriate and culturally sensitive teaching-learning plan for the family.		x				x
9. Assist caregivers in identifying hazards preparedness measures in the care plan.		x				x

Criteria	Midterm Grade				Final Grade
	E	M	NM	N/A	F	P
10. Complete guided learning activities related to issues and the care of children and their families:				x
a. Community-based nursing care of the child and family				x
b. Communication with children and their families				x
c. Care of children and families with special needs				x
d. Attendance to Family Court hearings				x

MID CLINICAL EVALUATION (BY WEEK 4):

Faculty Comments:

Sara is doing well thus far in this pediatric clinical.

E- Exceeds expectations _____

M- meets expectations _____ x _____

NM- Has not meet expectations _____

N/A- not available _____

Student Comment

Student's Signature: Sara E Levy

Instructor's Signature: Prof. K. Muller

Date: 06/09/13

FINAL:

Faculty Comments:

Sara has demonstrated knowledge of growth and development this semester while working with her patients. She works well independently or in a group. Her care plans are well thought out and she seeks opportunity to improve her clinical skills. She has strong written and verbal skills, and is able to use the nursing process to accurately assess her pediatric patients.

Final Clinical Grade

PASS: _____ x _____

FAIL: _____

Student Comments:

Student's Signature: Sara E Levy

Instructor's Signature: Prof. K. Muller

Date: 06/30/13